Mary Beth Wehnes commented that she could get extra books for the event. Those in attendance discussed what to do if more volunteers were needed as the date of the event gets closer. Discussion ensued on promotional ideas and Bay News 9 and Channel 8 were both agreed upon as the next businesses to pursue for advertising. Steve mentioned a contact person by the name of Rose Marie Sieber who has offered to advertise the event in her community newsletter which she produces at her place of business.

The topic of donations was discussed. Nicole Miller mentioned that Chic-fil-a will provide brownies. Other food items mentioned were cookies and water. Publix was recommended as a place to contact for donations. It was then suggested that those working at the literacy events wear name tags. Discussion ensued on the best location for the van and all agreed that the van should be utilized at the Hernando County location.

It was determined that a literacy basket would be raffled off at each of the three locations. Discussion ensued on which places to seek donations for the literacy baskets.

Without any further discussion, the meeting adjourned at approximately 12:00 p.m.
