

Music Does Wonders!

Register online at www.phelc.org

This 3-hour training is for anyone working with children birth through Elementary Age. We will cover many topics of how to infuse your classroom with music and movement activities. Participants will learn brain-based research on the use of music and movement in the classroom and developmentally appropriate practice. You will learn how to build your own musical instruments for your classroom and how to integrate music across the entire curriculum. Preschool teachers will receive teaching tips and web based resources. Music does wonders for all children including children with special needs. Join us in this exciting training. CEU's will be offered with this training.
