

Terrific Transitions!

Register online at www.phelc.org

It is amazing how well your day can flow in your classroom when transitions are handled appropriately. Transitional songs and activities are powerful tools. They guide children through the day, help groups move from one area to another smoothly, and gives each child positive interaction with their caregivers. This interactive class will provide teachers with rhymes, songs and creative fun activities to help transitions flow smoothly. CEU's will be offered with this training.

This interactive class will provide teachers with rhymes, songs and creative fun activities to help transitions flow smoothly. Learn how to keep children interested and engaged as they move.
